

Outreach Worker – Closing the Gap Riverland

Up to 0.4 FTE

FocusOne Health is a locally run not for profit organisation providing a range of programs and services that aim to raise awareness and improve health outcome of the community.

FocusOne Health is seeking a motivated and passionate professional with the expertise to provide high quality chronic disease care coordination services within our Closing the Gap Riverland team.

Our Closing the Gap Riverland team, works alongside Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people with complex chronic diseases to effectively manage their health through access to and provision of high quality, culturally appropriate and multidisciplinary health care and care coordination.

The Outreach worker encourages Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people to access health services and help ensure that services are culturally appropriate. They will have strong links to the Riverland community. Outreach workers carry out non-clinical tasks and work with a team of Care Coordinators in the provision of the service.

The successful applicant will be remunerated in accordance with FocusOne Health's EBA dependent on skills, experience and qualifications. We offer flexible terms and conditions and attractive salary packaging arrangements.

In accordance with the South Australian Children's Protection Act 1993, the successful applicant will be required to attain the following screenings and checks prior to employment: a National Police Certificate and a Child Related DCSI screening.

A job description and further information can be obtained by contacting Kerril Vowles, Director of Services on (08) 8582 3823 or via our website www.focusonehealth.com.au

Applicants are required to address the Person Specification criteria of the Job Description. Your application, including a current resume, should be emailed to info@focusonehealth.com.au by 5pm Wednesday 28th November 2018.
